FIRECRACKERS AND FUN FOR THE BLEACHERITES

Hayes Pitches Fine Game for Stanford Team in Spite of Defeat

A fat Chinaman in the leftfield bleachers threw a bunch of lighted firecrackers to the third base coaching line just as Pitcher Hayes of the Stanford was about to deliver the first ball of the ninth inning. The firecrackers blew up. Hayes saw the explosion, hesitated and then followed suit with the resulting score—Chinese 3, Stanford 1.

The score was tied when the ninth opened—one to one. The corpulent Chinese shouted "They're blowing up, glet 'em Luke." Luke did. He went to first on a single to short. H. K. Yim assisted the Chinese revolution against Stanford by sending a long bingle to center.

Chines, Hawaiians and haoles contributed to the melody that greeted the next Chinese batter—Lang Akana. Lang responded to the greeting with a single to short. The bases were full. According to Home Run Baker and Caser-at-the-Bat traditions, Kan Yin should have knocked the sphere over the fence. But Yin did nothing of the sort. He put one finger into the air. The Chinese on the bags nodded assent.

Luke took a long lead off third as the third ball shot to the plate. Yin bunted the ball five yards down the first base line and Luke slid safely home. Catcher "Joe-ell" Landers shot the ball to first and caught Yin, but that meant only two out and Yin came home on the play. Akana was on third and went out on a daring attempt to steal home while Pitcher Hayes held the ball.

Cardinals Too.

None the less surprising was the attempted rally of the Cardinals in the last half of the ninth. Two men were out when Mr. Noonan came to bat. The Stanford gentleman had two strikes called on him and two fair friends in the stand. Rather than take a chance he ran across the plate to get in front of the ball. Thus he drew a pass to first on a hit-pitcher.

That was very gratifying to the Cardinals and Stevens singled to short. Two Palo Altans were on bases when Dent was brought to the bat as a pinch hitter. Dent put the crimp in the rally business by forcing out Stevens at second.

The score:

SCHOOLBOOK HANDBAG INJURIOUS TO SPINE

[Associated Press]
BERLIN.—School girls must not carry their books in a handbag, but in a knapsack on the back. The minister of education is responsible for this new rule, which is shortly to be issued. The rule is directed to teachers, parents and the girls themselves. The minister declares that the habit of carrying books in handbags is like to lead to curvature of the spine and derangements of internal organs.

Bunts and Bounders

Kan Yin pegged nicely to bases yesterday.

Both pitchers were hit freely in Saturday's extra-inning contest.

Second Baseman Stafford kept up his consistently fine work yesterday.

Luck Yee pitched good ball and got good support. Outfielder En Sue contributed a thrilling catch.

Henry Chillingworth umpired behind the plate Saturday. It is some time since Henry has called 'em.

Janssen pitched superbly for the St. Louis aggregation in the first game of yesterday's baseball matinee.

The best publicity work for the next meeting between Stanford and the Chinese was the game yesterday.

Albert Akana was there with three hits out of three times up in the first game. One of them was a two-bagger.

Hayes' pitching was brilliant throughout yesterday's game, and the scoring in the ninth was somewhat due to baseball luck.

Peed and Lawson were touched pretty freely. Between them they allowed 11 hits, while the players behind them could only collect three off Janssen.

Umpire Statton displayed huge grins while acting as base arbiter in the first game yesterday when the fans voiced their indignation at the behind-the-bat decisions of Umpire Clark.

Yesterday's game was the first one in six months when any degree of enthusiasm was displayed by the fans. The rivalry was so keen in the Stanford-Chinese contest that the baseball bugs crawled all over the stand. It was the record crowd besides.

The first game started with heavy clouds above and someone remarked that it would be the luck of the Oahu League to have it rain before the fifth inning when the biggest crowd of the series was in the stands waiting for rain checks or more baseball. But fortune smiled on the Oahu league treasury.

En Sue started the ball rolling for the St. Louis team in the first inning of the first game with the Army. The inning ended with five scores for the St. Louis squad. Then En Sue quit the game to repeat the same thing in the second encounter. In the last contest En Sue walked in the first inning and scored later.

Both Umpires Statton and Clark had close decisions to make on bases that might have been called either way. Two of Clark's decisions on second irritated the Chinese supporters, but both looked good to the grandstand spectators whose sympathies were neutral.

Captain Workman of the Stanford team was "bawled out" by the crowd for some slow work that trapped him between second and third. He was on second when a grounder was hit to the shortstop. The shortstop juggled it and Workman stood in his tracks a few feet towards third while short recovered the ball. It was a cinch then to toss the ball to second and put Captain Tom out.

Lang Akana made a great try for Stanford's short single to right in the fourth inning that scored Maple. The ball went between left and center on a low line. Lang dashed in for it and made the only possible attempt to cut off the run by sticking down his gloved hand to catch the pill on the fly, but couldn't quite get to it and merely blocked it on the first bounce. Maple easily scored from third.

Workman made a brilliant effort to cut off the second Chinese run in the last inning. Taking a thrown ball while going backward to first, he stumbled over the bag and fell flat. Meanwhile Hoon Ki was racing in from third. Workman sat pat way up, saw he wouldn't have time to get up and throw, and so snapped the ball to Landers while in a sitting position. The throw was perfect, but a fraction of a second too slow.

FOURTH OF JULY ON VALLEY ISLE PROMISES SPORT

If the rule of former years holds good there will be a pilgrimage of Honoluluans to the Valley Island this week for the Fourth of July doings at Waikuku and Kahului. The race meeting at the latter track promises to be better and bigger than ever, and indications are that the sport will be high class.

This year the crack band of the 4th Cavalry will provide the music of the day, having accepted an invitation from Maui some weeks ago.

The Maui Times, speaking of preparations for the race meet, says: "The Glorious Fourth will be celebrated in greater style this year than ever before if everything turns out as planned."

On the evening of July 2 the annual 4th of July dance will be given at the Alexander House Gymnasium. If it can be arranged, a basketball game will precede the dance.

The great 4th of July races will be held on Saturday, July 3. Every lover of good, clean horse racing should be present at this meet, which will be more local in character than ever before, which means that all the biggest, fattest purses will not go to Honolulu and Hilo as so often has been the case in former years. The 4th Cavalry band will come up from Honolulu and play at the races. It is one of the finest bands in the United States army, and will greatly enhance the pleasure of the day at the race track. There is nothing like military music to put the right spirit and life into the people. The band also contemplates giving a concert later.

After the races, a game of baseball will be played at Kahului. As the Stanford baseball team is not coming up, the game will be between two picked local teams.

At a special meeting of the racing committee held last Thursday evening, the following officials were named to handle the meet:

Judges—S. S. Paxson, F. H. Locey and John Vasconcelos.
Starters—Angus McPhee and John D. Holt, Jr.
Timekeepers—T. B. Lyons and William T. Robinson.
Clerk of the Course—William E. Bal.

The following is a list of entries and events for the meet:

1. Japanese race, ½ mile dash; entries: Johnny, Lazy Joe, Sillis.
2. Hawaiian bred, ¾ mile dash; entries: Wallaby, Athlon, Frances B.
3. Two-year-old free for all, ½ mile dash; entries: Sea Bolt, Senator B. Copra.
4. Luna's ¾ mile dash (post entries); entries: Melba, Lady Womero.
5. Pony free for all ½ mile dash, (14.3 hands or under); entries: Radium, Adonis, Young Lady.
6. Trotting or pacing free for all, 1 mile heats; best 3 in 5; horses to be handicapped according to time; entries: Denervo, Maui Boy, Welcome Boy.
7. Free for all ½ mile dash; entries: Sillis, Advance Guard, Frances B.
8. Japanese ¾ mile dash (post entries); entries: Aina Nui Palahala, Opium, Kula Girl.
9. Cowboy ½ mile relay (post entries); entries: Lauhulu, Huhupia and Gasline; Circle, Ivory and Genevieve.

WOUNDED OFFICER TRIES ADVERTISEMENT FOR SKIN

CORRECT EXAM. PAPERS FROM EIGHTH GRADES

A committee consisting of George S. Raymond, school inspector, chairman; M. Benjamin Bairois of the McKinley High School, Ida G. McDonald and Ruth Shaw of the Normal School, has begun the work of correcting and grading the examination papers of the eighth grades of the public schools. Mr. Raymond reports that the papers thus far looked over have been found excellent. He predicts that an unusually large number of students will be eligible for entrance into the high school.

In April, 1915, imports into the United States totaled $160,576,106 against $173,762,114 in April last year and $146,194,461 in April, 1913. April exports rose $94,656,761 above the best record made in April of any earlier year, being $294,170,139, against $162,552,570 in April, 1913. Comparing April trade with the low points touched in August last imports have increased 23.7 per cent and exports 166.8 per cent.

KAULUWELA TEAM TOO STRONG FOR PALAMA PLAYERS

Triangular Series Shows Kauluwela's Best at Indoor Baseball

	W.	L.	Pct.
Kauluwela	4	1	.800
Palama	3	2	.600
Bulletin	0	4	.000

Saturday night in the Games Hall of the Y. M. C. A. the Kauluwela junior indoor baseball team retained their title as champions by defeating the fast Palama team 9 to 3.

There were three distinct features of the game, the first being the excellent pitching of Ah Lum and the miserly support he received behind the bat, as in the eight innings he pitched he struck out 16 men. Next, the wonderful support that the Kauluwela fielders gave Kakalia, making but one error, which had no effect on the score; pulling off two double plays and seemingly taking everything that came anywhere near them in the way of chances. This airtight fielding twice kept Palama from scoring, with men on third when the batter drove the ball for what seemed to be a sure hit only to have Kauluwela fielder spear it for an out. The last but not the least feature was the excellent brand of umpiring by Ben Clark and John Gomes, both of whom during the recent series have easily demonstrated that they not only know the game but are thoroughly capable of handling the players and enforcing the rules.

Kauluwela went to bat first and Lum struck out the first three men. J. Chew, first up for Palama, singled. Kai struck out, K. Fan singled, Yoshi went on a grounder at first, Chew and Fan scoring. Tuck Chan was passed and stole second while Lum was striking out. Two runs.

In the first of the second Lum once more struck out the first three men to face him, making six in a row. For Palama, Fong singled, Tim struck out. Akana out at first on a grounder, Fong going to third; and Chew closed the inning with a foul fly to Rosario.

Akua, the first up for Kauluwela in the third, drove the ball to the wall, stole second, and went to third on a passed ball. Bell out on a foul fly. Kakalia singled, Akua scoring. Kakalia went to third on two passed balls and was out between home and third trying to score on another one. Kealan struck out. One run. Kai went out on a grounder, the first up for Palama. Fan sent a hard single to the outfield, but Yoshi ended the inning by a line drive to Kakalia who by quick work got Fan at first for a double play.

In the fourth, two bases on balls, an error and a hit by Akua gave Kauluwela two more runs; while Palama, with men on second and third, was held rousing owing to the fast work of Kauluwela in the field.

Neither team scored in the fifth, but in the last of this inning Kauluwela pulled off their second double play of the game.

In the sixth Rosario opened with a single, Kazumi was safe at first on an error. Akua made his third straight hit, scoring Rosario and taking third on the play when Kazumi was caught off third, and scoring on Bell's out at first. Kakalia struck out in Palama's half, Lum struck out, Fong singled, stole second and went to third on a passed ball, but was out trying to steal home. Tim struck out.

In the seventh neither team scored, but in the eighth Kauluwela clinched the game by scoring three more, on four hits and two errors, while Palama was retired one, two, three in their half.

In the ninth, Haru got a base on balls, and Rosario sent him to third with a single to the outfield. Kazumi struck out, and Akua was given a pass. Haru was out at home trying to score, and Rosario crossed the pan on another error. Bell singled, but Akua was out at home trying to score. Fong and Tim, the first two men up for Palama in the ninth, struck out. Akana got a base on balls, Chew singled. Kai singled, scoring Akana and sending Chew to third, but Fan ended the inning and the game with a foul fly to Rosario which was caught in the crowd.

For Palama, Akana at short and Tuck Chan in the field did the best work, while Fan, Chew and Fong led Palama at bat. Sillis, Kinchie, Rosario and Kakalia made sensational catches for Kauluwela while Akua led both teams at bat, getting four hits and a base on balls out of five times up, with Rosario a close second with three hits and a base on balls out of five times at the bat.

Score by innings:
Kauluwela.....0 0 1 2 0 2 0 3-9
Umpires—John Gomes and Ben Clark.

LAYS BLAME ON PARENTS.

(By Associated Press.)
BERLIN, Germany.—The senate of the free city of Luebeck has adopted an ordinance aimed against the use of tobacco by children under 16 years of age. It makes parents or guardians liable for violations of the law. This, so far as known, is the first law of the kind to be passed in a German municipality.

MAUI TO STAGE BASKETBALL AND DANCE PROGRAM

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence)
WAILUKU, June 26.—Maui girls who play basketball will have a chance to exhibit their strength and knowledge of the game next Friday evening at the Alexander House Gymnasium, when the gymnasium team will play the Hamakua High School team at 8 o'clock. The game is anticipated with keen pleasure by Maui people, and especially by those interested in the various members of the teams. The girls of the high school have been playing excellent ball this season, and the gym girls have also been putting in some hard practice.

Following the basketball games a dance will take place. It has been the custom of the gymnasium people to hold this dance each year just before the races. Fifty cents admission to both the game and the dance will be charged this year for everyone attending. Children under 15 will be admitted for half price. The proceeds of the evening's fun will go to the gymnasium upkeep, which of late has been considerable, as repairs had to be made in the building.

Gym Bowlers win.

At the Alexander House Gymnasium last Monday evening the gym team won the laurels from the Puunene team. The match was an exciting one, and the Wailuku boys bowled an excellent game, one of the best for team work since the match began. Some high scores were made also by Puunene bowlers, McLaren being both the high score man and high average.
